

Lutz John Michael Lutz, 57, passed away Tuesday, October 18, 2016. The family is devastated and heartbroken at the passing of John. He was a beautiful son, a loving brother, a loyal friend and a gift to everyone he met. He was such a kind and humble soul and he will be missed greatly. John is preceded in death by his parents W. Beale Lutz, M.D. and Joan Reid-Lutz, grandparents Fred and Helen Lutz, William and Gwendolyn Reid, aunt Marjorie Lutz, aunt and uncle Woodrow and Nancy Woodworth. He is survived by his brother, William R. Lutz; and sister, Sarah E. Lutz; uncle, Fred A. Lutz; cousins, Steve and Nancy Lutz, Jamie and Craig Woodworth; niece, Robyn (Lutz) Hough; and nephew, Andrew Lutz; along with their five children. John attended Upper Arlington High School and was a graduate of Grand River Academy in Ashtabula, Ohio and attended Otterbein College. He loved and lived in Folly Beach, SC. He was a valued and loved member of the Swig and Swine restaurant culinary crew. His gentleness will be missed by all. In lieu of flowers, the family asked that contributions be made to the Charleston Animal Society (charlestonanimalsociety.org) in his memory.
