Marzetz, Dana Dana Leigh Marzetz, 52 of Dallas, Texas, passed away in her home on June 17, 2011. She was born March 17, 1959 in Wheeling, West Virginia, the daughter of the late Mary Evelyn Naples and William Marzetz. She is a graduate of Upper Arlington High School in Columbus, Ohio and she also attended Ohio State University. She is survived by her husband, Donald Ping of Dallas, Texas; brother, Larry Lehner of Pen Yan, New York; nephews, Drew Orr and his wife, Jessica of McKinney, Texas and Patrick Mack of Laguna Beach, California; and nieces, Casey Kazmann and her husband, Colter of Rowlett, Texas; and Taylor Mack of Clearwater, Florida.

Dana was preceded in death by her sisters, Fawn Orr and Dawn Marzetz. Dana will always be remembered as someone with a lust for life and "living it large". She loved being outdoors and enjoyed snow skiing and scuba diving among many other outdoor activities. In her down time, you could always find her reading a book, needle pointing or spending time with family and friends. Her family and friends will always remember her honest, kind and generous heart and her infectious laugh that would always put a smile on your face. A service will be held at 2pm on Wednesday, June 22nd at Firewheel Church, 1600 W Campbell Road in Garland, Texas. The family has requested in lieu of flowers, that donations be made via an American Cancer Society memorial site created in Dana's honor, <http://main.acsevents.org/goto/dana.marzetz>, or directly to the American Cancer Society in her name.
