

Terra Parr Marzetti, 66, of Columbus, Ohio, passed away peacefully on November 21, 2025. Born on June 7, 1959, Terra spent her life lifting others up, restoring hope, and helping people recognize their own worth when they struggled to see it themselves.

Terra devoted her career to supporting individuals and families as they worked to reclaim homes that had become overwhelming. She guided others with patience, dignity, and unwavering compassion. Her remarkable ability to listen, understand, and meet people exactly where they were, earned her recognition in The Columbus Dispatch and a feature in O, The Oprah Magazine.

Terra leaves behind her daughter, Olivia von Lembcke (Mark), and her grandchildren Theodore (8), August (5), and Eloise (1). She is also survived by her son, Gabe von Lembcke (Katelyn), and her grandson, Gabriel (5). Her family was her joy and her purpose. The lessons she shared about compassion, generosity, and seeking the good in others, will live on through them and through the countless lives she touched.

In honor of her spirit, the family asks that you help someone in need. Donate to your local Food Pantry, Toys For Tots, Ohio Healths Kobacker House or offer kindness to a stranger. That is how Terra lived, and that is how she would want to be remembered.

A private celebration of life is being held.
